

RAINET

"in serving others we become free"

MISSION STATEMENT

WE BELIEVE THAT AWARENESS AND PREVENTION ARE ABSOLUTELY VITAL FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF SAFE WORKPLACES, HEALTHY COMMUNITIES AND A SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

- ❖ We believe that all persons must be assisted to achieve the highest level of wellness and quality of life;
- ❖ We believe that all persons must be provided with the protection of the law as enshrined within the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms;
- ❖ We believe that chemically/environmentally induced injury and/or illness must become official and recognized disabilities at all levels of government
- ❖ We believe that all disabled persons should be provided with the necessary assistive devices and/or supports.

CRITICAL ISSUES

- ◆ Reduction of chemical exposures
- ◆ Relationship between safe workplaces and healthy communities
- ◆ *Appropriate application of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms
- ◆ *Enactment of the Ontarians with Disabilities Act
- ◆ Recognition of chemically/environmentally induced injury/illness
- ◆ Integration of traditional and non-traditional modalities of medical/health-care

Established as a volunteer, "not-for-profit" organization in 1997, RAINET provides cost-free services to disabled individuals who have become financially disadvantaged
